Inglis

Philada July 21st 1821

D Smith, Jnō Miller & Edgr Fother
Wardens of St Peters Church

Gentlemen

I take this method of informing you that Miss Katharine Inglis in her last Will & Testament bequeathed the sum of £100 (say one hundred pounds) to St Peters Church, which will be paid after the death of Miss Marguerite Hall, according to the tenor of the said Will now on record at the Registers Office

Very respectfully
Yours &c &c

Jos Inglis Execr
of K Inglis Decd

do

Joseph Swift Exr
of Cathr Ingles

Philada 21 July 1821.

informing of a Legacy left to St. Peters Church after the death of Philip McCall

D Smith, Jno Miller Esqrs & Others —

Inglis

Whereas a Legacy of £100 has been bequeathed to S.t Peters Church by the late Miss Kath.a Inglis - which appears by a letter from Joseph Swift Executor of her Last Will addressed to Dan.l Smith and John Miller jr. dated the 21 July 1821 - And Whereas the Congregation of S.t Peters are desirous of having two Chandeliers for said Church

Resolved That the Assistant Warden of S.t Peters Church be and he is hereby authorized to procure two suitable Chandeliers - and to pay for the same out of the Monies which may be received by him - provided the cost shall not exceed the sum of $300 - And that the aforesaid Legacy be hereafter considered as belonging to the general funds of the United Churches

"Item I bequeath the sum of one hundred pounds to St. Peter's Church - also the sum of fifty dollars to the Widows and Single Womens Society of which I am a subscriber - these two above named Legacies are not to be paid till after the death of my friend Margaret Mc. Call."

City & County of Philadelphia ss.

I Certify that the above writing is a true ~~Extract~~ from the original last Will & testament of Katharine Inglis deceased, dated June 29th. 1821. and proved the 17th day of July 1821 in the Register's office at Philadelphia - I do further certify that Joseph Swift Junior one of the Executors was duly affirmed the 19th day of July 1821 & Letters Testamentary were granted unto him. Given under my hand and Seal of office this Seventh day of May Anno Domini 1822

Peter J. Wiltsenberg Register

Extract from the will of Catherine Inglis—read at Vestry 4 Sept. 1822.